FRANCISCAN COLLEGE OXFORD

AT our Provincial Chapter held at the Monastery, Olton, on September 5, 1911, it was unanimously decided that our College at Cowley should be enlarged by the addition of a new wing, and the Father Rector was commissioned by the Superiors to take the matter in hand at once, and to begin to collect the necessary funds.

¶ When the College was taken over by us five years ago, several good friends (whose names are recorded on memorial tablets in the College Chapel, and for whose good estate Mass is said weekly) came forward, and by each giving £100 became Founders of the College. Thus, and thus only, were we able to start the College.

¶ We are now making a wider appeal for funds to extend our buildings in order that the many boys who desire to enter the College with a view to becoming Franciscan priests and missionaries may not be turned away from their good purpose, either from want of room or from lack of means to pay for their education. The present capacity of the College is strained to its very utmost, and every Term finds us compelled to give a refusal to many applicants.

¶ Our action in taking and carrying on the College has been fully justified by the results. During the six years that have elapsed since the school was opened, forty-eight of the pupils have been successful in the Oxford Locals, and fourteen have entered our Novitiate at Pantasaph.

¶ We are only poor sons of St Francis; we have no means of our own, and hence we confidently appeal to our friends and well-wishers, especially the members of the Third Order, to help us in our present necessities. We need hardly add that, owing to the recent decrees of the Holy See, the College is absolutely essential to our English Province.

¶ Any donation, however small, will be most gratefully received and acknowledged. In addition, we hope that some readers of this appeal may, by contributing larger amounts, become "Founders of the New Wing." All benefactors share in the Masses and prayers daily offered up by the community and boys.

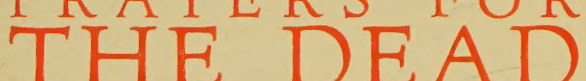
CHRIST THE CONSOLER

A PRAYER BOOK FOR THOSE BEREAVED BY the War. Compiled by AGNES EGERTON CASTLE.
Printed in red and black, limp lambskin, silk marker, 3s. net. Postage 2d.
Mrs. Egerton Castle has gathered together from many healing sources prayers of comfort, appeals for mercy, solacing thoughts, for the peace of heart of the relatives and friends of those who have been killed in the war. The Scriptures yield her their treasures; Dante, Mgr. Benson, an 18th century "manual," Richard Rolle, St. Bernard, St. Gertrude—all these have their share in a book of strange power and beauty.



PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD

COMPILED FROM LITURGICAL SOURCES BY W. H. Kent, O.S.C.
Uniform with the above. Printed in red and black, limp lambskin, silk marker, 3s. net. Postage 2d.
¶ Father Kent has marshalled the official prayer of the Church into an army of supplication. Nowhere is the Church more tender than in her care for the immortal souls of the dead, and in no other parts of her liturgy is her language so beautiful, so simple, so personal and so poignant. It is as if the Church in all her voices, in all her ages, had been stirred with one great impulse of pity. Not only because it is liturgical, but for the intrinsic beauty of its prayers, this little book is, in its own field, of incomparable value.

THE MYSTICAL KNOWLEDGE OF GOD

An Essay in the Art of Knowing and Loving the Divine Majesty

By DOM SAVINIEN LOUISMET, O.S.B.

Fcap. 8vo. Cloth, gilt, with a frontispiece in photogravure, 2s. 6d. net. Postage 3d.

¶ This is a book for the priest on the mission, the ecclesiastical student, the cloistered contemplative and the apostolic man of the world. It makes its appeal also to the little ones of the flock, eager for instruction in "the art of knowing and loving God," and comforted and refreshed by any increase in their proficiency. In the sequence of the chapters is a gradation which at once allures the reader and uplifts him. He finds himself carried to the summit of Divine contemplation, until the final chapter gives him the last word to be said on earth about God in the light of eternity.

It is shown that mystical knowledge is very sweet; that it is experimental; that it comes from within, infused directly from God; that it is for all; that it is without any danger of delusion; and that once a man has received it he may enlarge it. At the end all the reader can say is simply this: "Well, then, I also must be a mystic." For the carrying out of this high resolve the book will be read again and again —as fitly before the altar as at home.

BLESSED ARE THEY THAT MOURN

BY MOTHER MARY LOYOLA

(Cr. 8vo. 2s. 6d. net. Postage 3d.)

IT is Mother Mary Loyola's purpose in this book to offer her tribute of deepest sympathy to the many wives, mothers, daughters, sisters or betrothed whose cup of sorrow has been filled brim-full by the terrible happenings of the war. But she gives them more than barren sympathy, she provides substantial comfort, as well as help to guide their thoughts heavenward to the one and only source of consolation. There is a wonderful gentleness of touch in her probing of the wound. The undertaking of this book was originally pressed upon her as a service to be rendered to the too numerous class of them who sorrow "even as those who have no hope." They cannot but be the fewer because of this touching volume.

PREFACE

BY SIR F. C. BURNAND

THE End of the Year: Would we could say "The End of the War!" If we must sadly speed the departing, may we surely, and hopefully, welcome the coming guest? Yes, certainly; hopefully, earnestly, nay, confidently, but, above all, prayerfully.

The dying year passes on its burden to its successor, and we call to mind how all was darkness when the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters and God said, "Let there be light." Then with the first created beam came the glorious and encouraging ray of Hope. "Watchman, what of the night?" The darkness is passing. The hopeful light is growing stronger and stronger; but the end is not yet.

And this is 1917, when we are in the third year of the war! Who of us, in 1913, would have thought it probable, nay, even possible, that such words should truly herald the opening of 1917! With what wonderful rapidity—Deo gratias!—have our deficiencies been repaired and permanently strengthened!

Our Army, too, so contemptuously belittled by the enemy in the eyes of the world, how marvellously has it sprung into existence, and the work of our clergy, with both Services, has been, is, and will ever be invaluable. From the Cardinal Archbishop down to the very latest ordained, their labour, in every respect, has been indefatigable. So, by God's grace, will it continue to the end. May the end arrive speedily, effectually, and, for us, triumphantly.

* * * *

Sad, indeed, must have been the work of the self-imposed task of the energetic compilers of THE CATHOLIC WHO'S WHO in recording the names of those who have fallen in the war, of whom many have achieved national distinction as winners of the "Victoria Cross." Their names will be ever memorable in the annals of Our Country, and at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, throughout the world. Having passed through this awful baptism of fire, they rest in the perfect peace of God "which passeth all understanding." Requiescant.

* * * *

Rarely, within a reign only commenced a few years ago, have arrived such magnificent opportunities of personally winning the love of their people's hearts as have been afforded, during this awful time, to our King and Queen, of which they have, with the heartiest self-sacrifice, availed themselves. Nothing that they could do to show their Catholic sympathy with all their subjects, of every degree, has been by them, and by the Royal Family following their noble example, left undone. Where the interests of their people have been concerned, no difficulties of time, place, or distance, have been allowed to block their path.

"What infinite heart's ease,
Must kings neglect, that private men enjoy!"

Their hearts have gone out to their subjects, and the hearts of all their subjects are with their loved King and Queen.

So, in this awful time of stress, all Catholics unite, heart and soul, in praying, "God save the King!" Having but one aim and end in view, and that is, "Peace with Honour."

THE

HIGHWATER MARK OF PERFECTION

IN place of one rigid system, the same for all, THE TIMES BOOK CLUB adapts its Circulating Library Service to meet the needs of different classes of Readers. There is one Subscription for Town Readers and another for the Country. There is a cheap rate intended for those who read for relaxation, as a recreation, and another, a little more expensive, intended for students and serious readers. This is the "Guaranteed" Service. Subscribers in this class get practically every book published as soon as it comes out. If it should not be in the Library at the time, a new copy of the book is bought at once for the subscriber. This is the Ideal Library Service for those whose reading is in the nature of study, for the man in public life, for the Literary man, for all who in any way influence or lead public opinion.

Two Testimonials.

A West Country subscriber writes:—"I think your 'Guaranteed' Service of books is quite admirable, and I wish you every success. I have already recommended you, and will continue to do this. I cannot offer you any suggestions for the improvement of the service, for I think you have now reached the high water mark of perfection in all ways."

"I have found the 'Guaranteed' Service a great success, and shall have pleasure in recommending it to my friends."—Lord Herbert Vane-Tempest.

DUBLIN REVIEW

The members of the editorial Committee now responsible for the "Dublin Review" in the departments for which their names stand for mastery include Mr. SHANE LESLIE, Canon WILLIAM BARRY, D.D., Father MARTINDALE, S.J., Sir BERTRAM WINDLE, F.R.S. and Mr. ROBERT WILBERFORCE.

¶ The "DUBLIN REVIEW" is the chief Catholic periodical in the English language: theological, literary, scientific, and high-political. ¶ Under its new Board of Editors its politics will be to attempt a consolidation which has as its basis a Religion loved in common. There can be no fairer ambition for Catholic publicists in this country than that of strengthening the ties which unite English-speaking Catholics all the world over. Only on the lines of such union can the full strength of the Catholic position be set forth. This is the sole policy worthy of the traditions of the "DUBLIN" which Dan. O'Connell founded; and it is an earnest of success in one item of this extended programme that, at the invitation of Mr. SHANE LESLIE, a committee consisting of Cardinal GIBBONS, The Very Revd. Dr. FAY, and Mr. SCHUYLER WARREN has been appointed for the representation in the "DUBLIN" of Catholic thought and feeling in the United States.

¶ The "DUBLIN" is published quarterly. Single copies. 5s. 6d. net (postage 4d.). Yearly subscription, 21s. post free.

LITTLE PILGRIMS TO OUR LADY OF LOURDES

BY MRS. FRANCIS BLUNDELL (M. E. FRANCIS)

Crown 8vo., 3s. 6d. net. Postage 3d.

"Many years ago a very little boy, so little that he was still in petticoats, sat upon his mother's bed turning over the leaves of her prayer-book. 'What's that?' he asked, when he came to a certain picture. It represented a cave in a rock, on one side of which appeared a niche containing the white figure of a lady surrounded by a cloud of light, while kneeling on the ground towards the left was a little girl, whose clasped hands held a rosary and whose head was tilted upwards.

"His mother told him the story of Bernadette and of how 'Mother Mary,' as he always called the Blessed Virgin, had appeared to her at Lourdes, and how the wonderful spring had been discovered, the waters of which made blind persons see, and cripples walk, and cured many dreadful illnesses. He listened with absorbed interest, often interrupting with questions.

"Some months after this the little boy himself became suddenly so very ill that both the doctors who were attending him thought it hardly possible that he could recover. He was in a high fever, and when he called to his mother, she thought he was wandering.

"'I don't want any doctor,' said the little boy. 'Why do you send for doctors?' The mother bent over him trying to soothe him, and he caught hold of her with his little hot hand. 'Mother Mary will be the doctor, he went on.' (He was so little that he could not speak plainly, and said 'Mother Marely.') 'Why don't you give me the water from Mother Marely's well?"

"Then the mother remembered, and immediately got some Lourdes water for him, and telegraphed for masses and prayers in honour of Our Lady of Lourdes.

"A few hours after that the child fell asleep, and awoke on the following morning perfectly cured. His absolute faith had been immediately rewarded.

"This little book is offered to Our Lady of Lourdes in thanksgiving for his marvellous recovery, and as a plea for the continuance of her protection."—From the Preface.

AUNT SARAH AND THE WAR

A TALE OF TRANSFORMATIONS

1s. net. Library edition, 3s. net. Postage 1½d.

SEVENTY-FIFTH THOUSAND

"This little book weaves together every thread of sensibility which the great struggle can awaken, and leaves us a texture which disguises its own strength by its brilliance and its lightness. There is living and convincing character in the lovers, and the motherly Aunt Sarah; and there is unforced tragedy in the heroic ending. The penetration of great issues, and the manifestation of that wonderful change which has come over the nation, are conveyed by conversational and anecdotal touches, often of an unapproachable charm. The intellect of the book is exceptional, but it is the depth of feeling that should make every reader proud and grateful," (Pall Mall Gazette). "Witty, pathetic, and illuminating," (Public Opinion). "That fine little book," (Daily Chronicle). "A little masterpiece," (Liverpool Times). "It belongs to literature," (T.P.'s Weekly).

PANGE LINGVA

BY ADRIAN FORTESCUE & ALAN G. McDOUGALL

Being an anthology of ancient Breviary Hymns set out in their original Latin and in translations, and arranged according to the Church's Seasons. Demy 8vo., printed on hand-made paper and elegantly bound, 6s. net. Postage 5d.

"We welcome with unstinted praise the volume —beautiful in every sense—which Messrs. Burns and Oates have issued under the title 'Pange Lingua.' Mr. Alan McDougall has selected from the hymns of old and superseded rites: these to the number of 20 he has printed with translations which, it is not too much to say, equal Neale at his best: possessing as they do the characteristics which place him at the head of all translators—admirable English, literal rendering, and preservation of the various metres of the originals. . . . We would willingly linger longer over these delightful verses, but another at least equally important feature of the book demands attention—we refer to the essay, 'Concerning Hymns,' by Dr. Adrian Fortescue. No one interested in hymnology can fail to be delighted with his sketch" (Catholic Book Notes). "Mr. McDougall has gone far and wide for his examples. The selection is a tribute to his taste, and the whole book is charmingly produced" (Saturday Review).

ST MARY'S NURSERY COLLEGE

PRINCIPAL:
Mrs Bernard Mole (Clapham Maternity Hospital Certificate)
Assisted by
A trained Children's Nurse, Domestic Science, Kindergarten (Froebel Union) and Montessori Teachers, also Medical and other Lecturers.

ST MARY'S NURSERY COLLEGE provides for the training of Catholic gentlewomen as Nursery Nurses.

The demand for Children's Nurses far exceeds the supply, and here is provided an inexpensive training by which educated women who have natural sympathy for little children can earn an independent living.

The training includes:

I. A PRACTICAL COURSE.

The daily care and feeding of resident infants and children, from a fortnight to seven years old:

The duties and management of a Nursery (all the work being done by the Students): Nursery Cooking: Nursery Laundry: Needlework (special point being made of the cutting-out and making of children's clothes, knitting and mending).

II. A COURSE OF INSTRUCTION is given by Qualified Teachers on the following subjects: Nursery Hygiene: Child's Physiology: First Aid: Kindergarten Occupations, Games and Songs.

FEE. The course of training is six months; and the inclusive Fee for Board, Residence and Tuition is 36 guineas.

DIPLOMA. At the end of six months, Students whose work is satisfactory will receive a Certificate and be entitled to wear the Uniform of the College. Posts are found for the Students on completion of training.

MONTESSORI. A School has now been established on the College premises in which every Student is expected to take a short course. The Teacher has the advantage of personal training under Dr. Montessori in Rome, and holds the Diploma of the First International Course, Rome.

Babies and little children are taken by the College and receive the best attention while they form the subjects for the Students' care.

The educated woman who is a child-lover, and desires a quiet home life without a long professional training, would find in the Nursery a useful and well-paid career. To fit women for such a career is the object of the College, as well as to enable those who are entering upon the responsibilities of married life to acquire valuable domestic knowledge.

Address: Mrs Bernard Mole, St Mary's Nursery College, Belsize Lane, Hampstead, London, N.W.

The See of Aberdeen was founded at Mortlach in 1063; transferred to Aberdeen about 1125, under its 4 Bishop, Nectan; and was vacant from 1577 till the restoration of the Scottish Episcopate in 1878. The good feeling existing between the inhabitants and the Bishop of Aberdeen found free and delightful expression on the day of his consecration: "In his frequent intercourse with Protestants," he said, "he had met with many and strange heresies; but he might truly say that he had never met a real heretic." It was during the Bishop's rectorship of Blairs that the fine new buildings were erected, making the College, for its size, perhaps the most comfortable and the best equipped in the country: 19 Golden-sq., Aberdeen.

Abinger, Lady—wife of the 5 Baron and dau. of the Rt Hon. Sir William White, formerly our Ambassador at Constantinople. The late Lord Abinger left properties to future bearers of the title conditionally on their not being Catholics—an inquisitorial "dead hand" which legislation ought long ago to have rendered inoperative as putting a premium upon hypocrisy. The Shelley property at Boscombe came to Lord Abinger through the marriage of his father with the adopted dau. of Sir Percy Shelley, son of the poet. Lady Abinger's father, Sir William White, hurried on the Oxford Movement, for he lent Rosmini's Maxims of Perfection to William Lockhart, the Oxford undergraduate whose secession led to Newman's resignation of St Mary's: Rownhams Ho., Rownhams, Hants.

Barry, CANON WILLIAM, D.D., scholar, theologian, and man-of-letters—b. in London 1849, by descent a Hibernicized Norman of the S.W. of Ireland. From Oscott he passed to the English Coll. at Rome, where he had Cardinals Franzelin and Tarquini for Masters of Divinity, and was examined for his degree by Father Perrone. He was ordained in Rome, where he remembers the sittings of the Vatican Council and the entry of the Italian troops by the Porta Pia. A Vice-Presidency of Birmingham Seminary was followed by his appointment to the Chair of Divinity at Oscott; later he was engaged in mission work at Wolverhampton, and his subsequent charge at Dorchester gave him such leisure for literary labours as freed him from giving up to a parish talents that were meant for mankind. Dr Barry has studied Hebrew and Persian literature, and is master of Greek, Latin, French, German, Italian and Spanish; he has lectured in America and at the Royal Institution, and was the deliverer of the Centenary address on Edmund Burke, both in Dublin and London, in 1897. His first novel, The New Antigone, was published anonymously in 1887, and its success has since been repeated by

The Place of Dreams — The Two Standards and Arden Massiter: he has contributed a History of the Papal Monarchy to Mr Fisher Unwin's "Stories of the Nations" series, and has written studies of Newman and Renan for the "Literary Lives" series. In Heralds of Revolt he has collected some of his essays; while his Tradition of Scripture and other works have been translated into various languages. To be various yet expert in all that he undertakes is Dr Barry's achievement—a rare one in the history of literature; this faculty, and the light robe in which he is able to cloak profound learning, constitute him the most brilliant Quarterly reviewer and Dublin reviewer of his generation. Francis"; among other works which have given her a place and popularity of her own as a depicter of the country and of village life are The Story of Dan—A Daughter of the Soil (printed as the first Times serial in 1894)—Among the Untrodden Ways—Miss Erin—The Duenna of a Genius—Yeoman Fleetwood — Dorset Pastorals — The Manor Farm—Christian Thal—Dorset Dear—Stepping Westward—Hardy-on-the-Hill—Noblesse Oblige—Galatea of the Wheatfield—The Wild Heart—The Story of Mary Dunne. Her stories, turned into plays, have held, once and again, the London stage: The Manor Ho., Blandford, Dorset.

Blunt, Wilfrid Scawen—b. 1840, s. of Francis Scawen Blunt, of Crabbet Park, Sussex, by a dau. of the Rev. John Flutter Chandler, of Witley. Mr Blunt's mother was a friend of Archdeacon Manning, and her secession immediately followed his own. He was b. at Petworth House, the residence of his kinsman, Lord Leconfield. After Stonyhurst he went to Oscott, this association leading later to a correspondence between himself and Dr Meynell, which was edited by Aubrey De Vere and published under the title of Proteus and Amadeus. Entering the Diplomatic Service in 1858 he began that fellowship with Robert (afterwards Earl of) Lytton ("Owen Meredith") which was to have record in literature. In 1869 Mr Blunt m. Lady Anne Noel, and on the death of his elder brother, Major Francis Blunt (founder of the Capuchin Monastery at Crawley), he succ. to the family estates in Sussex. His own health was delicate, and he then began, in company with his wife, the series of Eastern travels with which their names will always be associated, visiting Arabia, Syria, Persia and Mesopotamia, and thus acquiring the character of a cosmopolitan, whose observations and sympathies far outrange merely conventional and national bounds. From this followed naturally Mr Blunt's effective intervention for the life of Arabi Pasha after the battle of Tel-el-Kebir; and that sympathy with Irish nationalism which led to his arrest for speaking at a proclaimed meeting. In the nature of the case the popularity granted to Mr Blunt as a poet has been denied him as a politician. The Love Sonnets of Proteus have gone through edition after edition; but three attempts made to enter Parliament were unsuccessful. The Arab stud which he founded at Crabbet has a world-wide renown: New-buildings Place, Southwater, Sussex.

Some of those adventurous travels have been recorded in Bedouin Tribes of the Euphrates and A Pilgrimage to Nejd, published by her and her husband in 1880 and 1881. Her brush has borne out her pen, pictures of hers having been exhibited at the Grosvenor and other galleries. The world-famous Crabbet Arabian Stud has been for years, and is now, her favourite pursuit. A devoted convert to the Catholic Church, Lady Anne Blunt has shown the universality of her sympathy with the unfortunate among nations and individuals. She is heir-pres. to the Barony of Wentworth. It is interesting to note that all the direct descendants of Lord Byron are Catholics—Lady Anne Blunt (his g-dau.), Lady Wentworth, and the Hon. Mrs Neville Lytton (gt-g-daus.) and the children of Mrs Lytton in the succeeding generation: Crabbet Arabian Stud, Three Bridges, Sussex.

Bourne, His Eminence Francis, Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster—b. at Clapham 1861, s. of Henry Bourne (a convert), by Ellen, dau. of John Byrne, merchant, of Dublin. Both his father and g-father served the Post Office Department of the Civil Service with distinction, his father as Principal Clerk under the Receiver Gen. His father was a convert to the Church, and the future Archbishop was educ. at Ushaw ; at Old Hall, Ware ; at St Sulpice, Paris, where he received the Diaconate in 1883 ; and at Louvain Univ. Ordained by Bishop Coffin, of Southwark, in 1884, he spent the next five years as assistant priest at Blackheath, Mortlake, and West Grinstead, where, having the spiritual care of boys, he showed that interest in their training and fortunes which had been fostered by a stay with the Salesians in Turin. Already devoted to the education of priests in its earlier stages, he left the orphan boys at West Grinstead in 1889, at the call of Bishop Butt, to found the Dioc. Sem. at Wonersh. He retained the Rectorship till 1898, together with the Chair of Moral Theology and H. Scripture, and made the institution so much of a model that it became, in a sense, the precedent for separate diocesan seminaries, and the best illustration of arguments he himself set forth in a series of still quoted articles in The Tablet. In 1895 he was named Dom. Prel. to Leo XIII and in the following year was cons. tit. Bishop of Epiphania, and Coadjutor to the Bishop of Southwark, whom he succ. in April, 1897. In September the Bishop took a leading part in the St Augustine celebrations at Ebbsfleet, and a little later he accompanied Cardinal Vaughan to Arles, a journey of memorable impressions. In the Southwark Diocese a nexus of social and "rescue" enterprises was formed during his rule. He enlisted lay co-operation in rescue work; and, adopting Cardinal Vaughan's watchword of "personal service," he established two Ladies' Settlements for work amongst the poor. The development of Catholic Boys' Brigades, which marked his stay in Southwark, was the outcome of his old interests on boys' behalf. While yet the youngest member of the English Episcopate, he was translated to Westminster as Cardinal Vaughan's successor in August, 1903, and received the pallium in November. As the 4th of a glorious line, the Archbishop has a heritage of great traditions, understood, respected, yet interpreted and tempered in accord with the needs and ideals of a new generation. A strong man in his quietness and confidence, he made that strength felt, to the admiration of all England, in his conduct of the Eucharistic Congress of 1908, and especially in his handling of the difficult position created by the action of the Government in regard to the proposed Procession of the Blessed Sacrament in the public streets. The erection, in 1911, of the two new ecclesiastical provinces of Birmingham and Liverpool reduced the Suffragan Sees of Westminster to four—namely, Northampton, Nottingham, Portsmouth and Southwark—the Archbishop of Westminster retaining precedence over all the other Archbishops and Bishops of England and Wales. At the Consistory held in Nov., 1911, the Archbishop assumed "the hue of Westminster," his elevation to the Cardinalate being hailed with joy by his flock and with satisfaction by his countrymen in general. In 1914 he assisted, with Cardinal Gasquet, at the Conclave which elected Benedict XV. Westminster diocese, in addition to the old jurisdiction of St Albans and certain "peculiars" of the See of Canterbury, is conterminous with the old diocese of London, thus being the only modern English Catholic diocese to be co-extensive, or nearly so, with an ancient one: Abp's Ho., Westminster.

hensions. Mr Burke's new theory of bioplasm, according to many eminent authorities, marks "progress in the right direction." Cambridge, and having taken his degree, prepared for the Anglican Ministry at Cuddesdon under Canon Liddon. But his reception into the Catholic Church, at the age of twenty-one, turned his thoughts for a time towards the priesthood, and he tried a vocation with the Oblates of St Charles at Bayswater under Dr (afterwards Cardinal) Manning. He was called to the Bar at Lincoln's Inn in 1862, and began writing for the theatre and light periodical literature. The first number of Happy Thoughts appeared in Punch on June 23, 1866; it made its mark at once, and when published separately, went through some twenty-six editions. Over a hundred and twenty plays, most of them burlesque, have come from his pen. Black-eyed Susan was one of his great stage successes, and equally popular was his version (with Sir Arthur Sullivan's music) of Morton's farce of Box and Cox. In The Colonel he proved himself the reformer of manners. Sir Frank, who had been already for many years the life and strength of Punch, accepted the editorship in 1880, retiring only in 1906, and it has been said of him that not one of his myriads of arrows of wit was ever yet poisoned. He appears as the happiest of autobiographers in My Time and What I've Done With It, and his more formal Reminiscences gained for him many friends among strangers. He has been one of the health-givers of his day in its most widely-read literature. Butler, LADY (ELIZABETH THOMPSON)—b. at Lausanne, where her parents took a house during the early years of their married life, and had among their English visitors Charles Dickens. Her father, who, after leaving Cambridge, travelled widely, devoted himself to the education of his two daughters, one of them to become known as a painter, and the other (Mrs Meynell) as a writer. Her first important oil-painting was a religious subject—a "Visitation of St Elizabeth," which gained an Honourable Mention at the Vatican Exhibition of 1870. This memorable year of the Vatican Council found her sending from Rome sketches to The Graphic ; also water-colours to the Dudley Gallery, which Mr Tom Taylor, the critic of The Times, had the prevision to praise for a quite unusual strength of draughtsmanship. An oil-painting, "skied" in the Academy of 1873, brought her a commission which resulted in the "Roll Call," a Crimean subject. The fame achieved by this "picture of the year" at the 1874 Academy belongs to the romance of modern painting, and was sustained by the young artist in her subsequent pictures. "The Remnants of an Army" is in the Tate Gallery; "Quatre Bras" is in the National Gallery at Melbourne; "Scotland for Ever!" is in the Town Hall at Leeds; while "Steady the Drums and Fifes!" is in the possession of the regiment whose bravery it commemorates—the "Die Hards" of the Peninsular War. Of the two pictures purchased by the Queen, "Rorke's Drift" is at Windsor, and "The Roll Call" is at Buckingham Palace. In 1877—the year that the "Return from Inkermann" was exhibited at the International Exhibition in Paris—Miss Thompson m. the late Gen. the Rt Hon. Sir William BUTLER. Chevalier, ALBERT—b. 1861, of mingled Italian, Welsh, and French extraction. He appeared in public when eight years old, and not even attendance at St Charles's Coll. North Kensington (Cardinal Manning's own foundation, who hated the stage) destroyed his ambition for the boards. He was for many years an actor before the music-hall claimed him as the popular impersonator of the "coster." He is the hero of 1001 Queen's Hall recitals, and since leaving the music-hall stage has been in great request as a private entertainer; Author of Lest I Forget.

Chevallier-Tayler, ALBERT—b. 1862, youngest of 7 sons; studied at the Slade School before passing to the Paris ateliers; spent ten years in Cornwall, and became an early disciple and master of the Newlyn School of Painting. His first Academy success was "The Last Blessing"—a priest standing by a death-bed in a Cornish fisherman's cottage. It was shown during the last May of Cardinal Manning's life, and his own last blessing of admiration was given to it. Paris crowned that canvas a year later; and, in the midst of his great success, the artist's reception into the Church showed how much sincerity and sense of renunciation he had brought to its delineation. A commission from the Fine Art Society took him, shortly afterwards, to Boulogne to paint the Blessing of the Boats. His portrait of the Countess of Annesley won for him honour in another department; but he remains best known by the painting of those interiors, with exquisite cross-lights and reflections, that were the note of the Newlyn painters. After leaving Cornwall and settling in London, Mr Chevallier-Tayler only exchanged old lights for new in his Academy picture of 1900 of a group of girl First Communicants at the Altar, and again in a High Mass subject contributed to the Academy of 1898, the accessories being easily recognized by those familiar with Brompton Oratory. This picture, which was bought by the Walker Gallery of Liverpool, was equalled in 1907 by the presentment of a newly received Child of Mary kneeling in the Lady Chapel of St James's Church, Spanish Place, a work of devout feeling and fine technique. A fresco painting by this artist forms one of the famous panels of the R. Exchange. Mr Chevallier-Taylor, who is Hon. Sec. of the R. A second oratorio, The Apostles, was produced at Birmingham during the same year, and in 1904 a unique compliment was paid the composer by the Elgar Festival at the R. Few chapters of Queen Victoria's history are more attractive than that which records the affectionate friendship she offered to the ex-Empress of the French, who, in her turn, gave to England her only son, slain in Zululand under conditions too painful to call for repetition. Her Majesty purchased, in 1881, the Farnborough Hill Estate, becoming the munificent founder of Farnborough Church and Abbey, where a community of Benedictines from Solesmes are in charge. The Empress is godmother of Queen Victoria Eugénie of Spain, in whose upbringing she has taken an affectionate sympathy that has met with abundant reward. It is interesting to note that the Empress —whose rule as a Queen of Sorrows over English sympathies is undisputed—has made a confession about the cost of her dresses at the Tuileries. Only four times did this lady, on whose extravagance her enemies have dwelt, expend more that £40 upon a gown: Farnboro' Hill, Hants.

He was early engaged in the distribution of electricity for lighting purposes, and was the first to attempt the distribution of electricity over long distances at high pressure. He conceived, and carried out with some success, the idea of generating all the electricity required for the lighting of London at Deptford. The manufacture of electrical apparatus being then a new industry, he had himself to superintend the design and construction of the Deptford generators and cables. This led to the founding of the firm of Ferranti, Ltd, of Hollinwood, nr Manchester—now of world-wide reputation. Mr Ferranti has given attention to many branches of engineering, as the records of the Patent Office show. He has been associated, as a Director or otherwise, with many important manufacturing firms. Dublin, graduating as M.A., and in 1855 he was called to the Irish Bar. He worked in old days as a "special" at Rome and in Holland for his friend Chas Dickens, and represented the Daily News at Homburg. Ever since his Schooldays at Saxonhurst (a book of bright boyish adventure), Mr Fitzgerald has displayed an amazing faculty of book production. As he has publicly "accused himself" of over two hundred volumes, including novels, books of travel, memoirs, books of devotion, biographies and essays, the list may well be held too long for insertion here. His first novel, Never Forgotten (written for "Boz") appeared in 1865, and his "Lives" include popular memoirs of Chas Lamb, David Garrick, the Kembles, George IV and William IV. In his Fifty Years of Catholic Life and Progress (1901), Mr Fitzgerald, like Madame Belloc in her Flowing Tide, frankly proclaims himself an optimist as to the Church's progress in England. He was first President of the Dickens Fellowship and the founder of the Boz Club, and has lectured at the R. Institution. To his talents as a sculptor, the bronze statue of Boswell set up in Lichfield market place and that of Dr Johnson in the Strand bear witness, as do also busts and other memorials of Dickens, Irving, Manning and others. The pulpit in St Peter and St Edward's, Palace-st, is of his design and modelling. In 1910 his bust of Chas Reade was set up in Magdalen Coll. Oxford. Busts of Jane Austin and "Boz" in the Pump Room, Bath, are also of his handiwork. He has founded a Museum of Royal portraits at Kew Palace and a Dickens Library at Rochester. He m. (1859) the Hon. DORCAS OLIVIA SKEFFINGTON (d. 1876), dau. of 10 Viscount Massereene. Catholics, in particular, owe a debt of gratitude to Mr Percy Fitzgerald for the delightful "Jewel" series, including Jewels of the Mass, Death Jewels and Eucharistic Jewels, and he has lately added to his literary output a morality, Worldlyman: 37 St George's-rd, S.W.

Her first prose work, to the writing of which she brought a fidelity all her own, A Nun, her Friends, and her Order (a life of Mother M. Xaveria Fallon) appeared in 1892; and, only second to her fame as a poet, is that won for her as a writer of fiction. The Handsome Brandons—The Dear Irish Girl—A Daughter of the Fields—A Girl of Galway—A Union of Hearts—Judy's Lovers—The Luck of the Fairfaxes and A Favourite of Fortune, are a few of the books which have delighted boys and girls and their seniors. In some of these works, hardly less than in her verse, she has captured more than any other living writer a pure and distinctive Irish note, and in this sense she may rank as the greatest living "nationalist." Her Rhymed Life of St Patrick completes her claim to be the Poet Laureate of Ireland. In 1913 she published a first volume of Reminiscences, entitled Twenty-five Years. From Assumption Coll. he passed to McGill Univ., where he graduated, and, after practising some few years at the Bar, entered the Quebec Parliament in 1871, having, while still in his twenties, m. Miss ZOË LAFONTAINE, of Montreal. As head of Inland Revenue in the Mackenzie Ministry in 1877, Laurier showed qualities which led to his election as leader of the Liberal Party in the Dominion in 1891, by which time he was—what he still is—member for Quebec East in the Federal House of Commons. When he accepted the Premiership in 1896, he was the first French-Canadian to take office—a triumph at once for his race and for the political system under which the fittest man in Canada, though French by blood, and Catholic by religion, succeeded Sir Chas Tupper as virtual ruler of the country. The Laurier Administrations of 1896, 1900, 1904, and 1908-11 are associated not only with material success for Canada and his own personal display of high powers of statesmanship, but have been marked also by an interchange of popular feeling and affection between England and the Dominion new to history. At Queen Victoria's Jubilee, London gave its loudest cheer for Sir Wilfrid, a popular triumph he has repeated during successive visits to London for the Conferences of Premiers, where his voice has been the moderate, the wise, and, in great measure, the controlling one. A perfect bi-linguist, he has won fame as an orator in English as well as in French, though perhaps his most memorable saying was that in which he summed up the position of French-Canadians under British rule: "En effet, nous Canadiens français, si nous sommes une race conquise nous avons aussi fait une conquête—la conquête de la liberté": 335 Laurier-ave East, Ottawa.

Both by his volumes and by his "Apostolate of the Reviews," Mr. Lilly is known to the outside public as an authoritative Catholic writer, with a wide range of reading, a ripe intelligence, and a style in controversy that is trenchant without being truculent —"peremptory" is the word applied to it a little complainingly by Dr Barry. His review articles have mostly done a double service, being republished in such works as Ancient Religion and Modern Thought—Chapters in European History—A Century of Revolution—The Great Enigma—Renaissance Types—Christianity and Modern Civilization—Many Mansions and The New France. For a more limited class he is the author also (with Mr Justice Wallis) of a Manual of the Law as it Specially affects Catholics. "Mr Lilly can be amusing and satirical," says Dr Barry in an estimate of this author, his friend; "his tone is that of a man of the world; yet, by a singular combination of qualities, rare among Englishmen, he unites with this worldly wisdom a deference to the ideals, religious and even ascetic, which are held up to an unbelieving generation by the Catholic Church": 1 York House, Kensington Palace-gdns, W.

Returning to his native diocese of Raphoe in 1874, he was cons. its Bishop five years later. The chair of St Eunan in the early 'eighties was no mere seat of "learned leisure" for its occupant, and for his flock in famine times he in one year collected close on £30,000. The parish priests of Armagh chose him as Coadjutor to Primate M'Gettigan in 1887, and he became, seven months later, Archbishop-Primate of All Ireland ; his elevation to the Cardinalate in 1893 was a dignity never before attained in the line of 108 Primates from St Patrick. Like his English compeer Cardinal Vaughan, who received the Red Hat at the same Consistory and who had the Irish Cardinal at his side at the laying of the foundation stone of Westminster Cathedral, he has laboured strenuously for his own cathedral, the memorable consecration of which took place in the presence of the Papal Legate in July, 1904. An omnivorous reader and a close follower of public affairs, he is an admirable, though not a prodigal, speaker ; and is a keen student of nature, a lover of the sea, and an expert yachtsman : Ara Coeli, Armagh.

Her first appearance in London was made in 1883, her chief successes being as Juliet, and as the Galatea of W. S. Gilbert's Pygmalion. A little later, in the dual rôles of Hermione and Perdita, she achieved her greatest triumph. She left the English stage in 1888, in the height of her popularity, and in the following year married Mr Antonio de Navarro, and then forsook altogether (to use her own phrase) the "rush and excitement of public life"; nor have the most flattering offers tempted her away from the quietude of the Court Farm, near to the old-world Worcs village of Broadway. Her beautiful voice has, however, been heard once or twice for the benefit of Father Bernard Vaughan's East-end charities. Duke and Earl, and Earl Marshal of England)—b. 1847 in Carlton House Terrace, e. s. of Hy Granville, 14 Duke, by Augusta Mary Minna, dau. of Edmund, 1 Lord Lyons; educ. at the Oratory School, and privately, he succ. in 1860, and has now borne his title for a longer period than has fallen to the lot of any other English Duke outside the Royal Family. He received his knighthood of the Garter in 1886 from Queen Victoria, the Order of Christ from Leo XIII, and the Golden Fleece from Pius X. The Duke was Special Envoy from Queen Victoria to Leo XIII at his Jubilee in 1887; was Mayor of Sheffield 1895-6 and its first Lord Mayor 1896-7; Postmaster-Gen. 1895-1900; first Mayor of Westminster 1900; Mayor of Arundel 1902; first Chancellor of the Univ. of Sheffield 1905; and Chairman of the R. Commission on the Militia and Volunteers 1903-4. He commanded the 4 Batt. R. Sussex Regt 1902-13, and in 1908 accepted the Presidency and Chairmanship of the Territorial Force Assn in Sussex. The Duke set a personal example in 1900 by serving with the Sussex Yeomanry during the War in S. Africa. He has been President of the Catholic Union of Gt Br. since its foundation in 1871, and is Chairman of the Catholic Education Council and of the Catholic Record Society. Since 1905 he has held the Lord-Lieutenancy of Sussex. So much may be baldly stated, but it would be impossible to appreciate justly within present limits the high influence of the Duke of Norfolk as a Catholic layman, felt by all, including those who do not share his political ideals. Of his philanthropy there is no need to speak. From what is known of his Charities and the churches he has built and helped to build, the unknown may be at least surmised. As a politician the Duke is active in the service of the party to which he belongs, and his rule at the Post Office during the Salisbury Administration of 1895-1900 conferred one boon after another on the public. Cardinal Manning's words, addressed to a great public gathering in Liverpool, have become truer with each succeeding year: "If there is any man in England who has acquired by the most just titles the affection and respect of every Catholic, that man is the Duke of Norfolk. I hardly know of any man of whom I can say with more confidence that he has a perfect rectitude of mind and life." Not only has he been in and out of Parliament, but he can look back upon two years as a political prisoner. An imaginative and somewhat melancholy child (he has told us), he went to an Athlone boarding-school when he was eleven, and there spent four unhappy years, to some degree brightened, however, by the kindness of the late Father Suffield. Later, at Queen's Coll. Galway, he carried off many prizes, graduated M.A. and distinguished himself in the Debating Society. In 1867, at the age of 19, he reported on Saunders's Newsletter, and, two years later, came to London, securing a berth on The Daily Telegraph. His next move was into the London office of The New York Herald, and in 1876 came his first great success—his Life of Disraeli, which, bitter indictment as it is, holds an indispensable place in the literature of Lord Beaconsfield. Four years later Mr O'Connor himself entered the political lists, going into Parliament for Galway. As the founder and editor of The Star, The Sun, The Weekly Sun, M.A.P., T.P.'s Weekly, and P.T.O., this "stranger within the gate" has been one of the kings of Babylonian journalistic enterprise, while in politics it has been his feat to wage a guerilla warfare against the two great parties by offering alliance first to one and then to the other. Santley, SIR CHAS, K.C.S.G.—b. 1834 at Liverpool, with a Welsh strain of ancestry. From his father he had his first lessons in music, and at the age of 20 he started for Italy with £40 in his pocket. Those were days of hard struggle, and on the conclusion of his studies under Nava he was almost reduced to starvation in Milan. Returning to England, he completed his training under Garcia, making his London debut at a Crystal Palace concert in 1857. His first great success came in Opera two years later; thenceforth he went rapidly forward in fame, till he was ranked as "the greatest baritone vocalist that these islands have produced." Gounod composed the air of "Avant de quitter ces lieux" (Valentine's Farewell in Faust) expressly for Santley after he had completed the score of the opera, so impressed was he with the range and power of his voice. Not less dazzling than his connexion with opera were his appearances in Oratorio; while to the younger generation of his lovers, his art has been associated with the concert-room. He has made the reputations of several song-writers, to whose work his exquisite interpretations first gave currency. His luck it was to give Mr Graves' "Father O'Flynn" its passport to popularity. Mr Santley was received into the Catholic Church in 1880, and his constant appearances at Catholic functions and in aid of Catholic charities have endeared him to his fellow believers. He has published various songs and piano-pieces, both secular and religious, a number of them bearing the name "Ralph Bretherton"; while his impressive Mass became familiar at the Kensington Pro-Cathedral in pre-Gregorian days. His memoirs, which appeared some years since under the title of Student and Singer, are stored with memories of the great contemporaries whose friendship he enjoyed—Gounod, Sullivan, Garcia, Gye, Reeves, Irving, Dickens and Thackeray. The public he has served so long and his fellow artists whose homage he has won kept the jubilee of his professional life at the Albert Hall in 1907, Pope Pius X sending his blessing to the great singer and devoted son on whom his predecessor had conferred a Knight-Commandership of St Gregory. Sir Chas has been twice married—1 (in 1859) to the late GERTRUDE KEMBLE, a g-dau. of Chas Kemble, the actor, who could claim kinship with a yet greater actor in life's drama, the Ven. John Kemble, English Martyr; and 2 (1884) to ELIZABETH MARY, dau. of Geo. ROSE-INNES. An early Tuke portrait of Mr Santley's three daus. will be recalled by visitors to the R. Academy. Cambridge; founder of the Cambridge Univ. Musical Club; organist and choirmaster at Downside 1896-1901, having previously filled the same post at Elstow School and St John's Cathedral, Antigua. Dr Terry, who believes that there is a "church style" in music equally as in architecture and painting, was known as a purist in the days before the Reform, and, by his interpretation of Palestrina and Plainsong at Westminster, has set a standard for all England. He is a reviver of Tallis, Tye, Byrd, Philips, and other English Catholic composers of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, whose works had mostly lain in museums and libraries for 300 years. Among the music thus heard in Westminster Cathedral for the first time since the Reformation are the two volumes of Byrd's Gradualia, the volumes of Cantiones Sacræ, by Tallis and Byrd, Richd Dering, and Peter Philips respectively. Those of Philips, Dr Terry copied and scored from the complete set in the King's library at Buckingham Palace. He is himself the composer of a number of masses, motets, and other Church music; the editor of Motets, Ancient and Modern—Downside Masses—and Downside Motets; the compiler (in 1907) of a valuable and detailed catalogue of Catholic church music; musical editor of the official Catholic hymnal for England; and the author of a standard volume on Catholic Church Music. He has contributed (words as well as music) to several hymnals, English, French, German and American. Was joint-editor of Byrd's five-part Mass, performed under Richter at the Birmingham Festival of 1900. Appointed by the Bishop Chairman of musical committee for preparation of English Supplement to Vatican Antiphoner 1911; President (1911-2) Union of Music Directors in Secondary Schools; Fellow, Member of Council, and Examiner, I.S.C.; Member of Council of Union of Graduates in Music 1912-5; Chairman at I.S.M. AMPLEFORTH COLLEGE

MALTON, YORKSHIRE

WESTMINSTER DIEULWARD, 1606.
AMPLEFORTH, 1802.

THIS School is conducted by the English Benedictines of the Abbey of St Lawrence, the lineal descendant house of Westminster Abbey.

The staff is composed of English Benedictine Monks, who are graduates of Oxford University. The course of studies is arranged in preparation for a University and Army career, and the standard aimed at is that of the Scholarship papers of Oxford and Cambridge.

Every boy in the School is taught some branch of Science.

A separate Preparatory School has been built on the Abbey Estate for boys between the ages of eight and twelve. It is a self-contained establishment and provides accommodation for forty boys. From it, boys pass into the College about the age of twelve.

The College has been approved by the Army Council for the grant of Leaving Certificates for admission to the Royal Military College and Royal Military Academy, and for the grant of Commissions to officers of the Militia and Imperial Yeomanry.

Ampleforth furnishes a contingent to the Officers' Training Corps, which joins the Annual Training Camp at Salisbury Plain or elsewhere. There is an outdoor Rifle Range, and a Drilling and Shooting Instructor (late Irish Guards) resides at the School.

It is thoroughly equipped with modern requirements, in particular with Chemical and Physical Laboratories, a Theatre and Lecture Hall, a Gymnasium (Swedish Apparatus), indoor (tepid) and outdoor swimming Baths, and detached Sanatorium.

Within the grounds are cricket, tennis, hockey, and Rugby football fields, and a golf course.

There are Old Boys' Cricket and Golf Clubs in London and Liverpool, and annual matches are played with the "Present."

Old Boys have the opportunity of visiting the College annually by becoming members of the Ampleforth Society.

The vacations are at Christmas, Easter, and Midsummer.

The College is situated in healthy and beautiful country near the Yorkshire moors, and is within easy reach of York, Harrogate, and Scarborough.

THIS Catholic Public School gives the full Classical and Mathematical Course for Oxford and Cambridge Higher and Lower Certificates, and prepares for Responsions at the Universities. It has been approved by the Army Council for nominations to Sandhurst. The system of discipline is on the same lines as that existing in the great English Schools.

Beaumont furnishes a strong contingent to the Officers Training Corps, and opportunities are offered for annual training in camp. The ranges of the Metropolitan Rifle Association are within easy reach. There is a large tepid swimming bath, and those who have passed the swimming test are allowed to join the Rowing Club. Besides the ordinary school sports, facilities are afforded for learning riding, jumping, and the general management of horses.

BISHOP COTTER, at the Distribution of Prizes, Sept. 29, 1912: "I thoroughly approve of the religious training given by the Salesian Fathers, who educate young men with a sound and entire knowledge of their holy religion, thus making them capable of standing alone among the scattered units which make up the Church in this diocese. I regard this school as a distinct asset to the diocese of Portsmouth. Honours were obtained in the Public Examinations, not only in one or two classes but throughout all the classes of the school. Consequently this school has already taken its place along with the older institutions in the front rank of educational establishments in the country."

Secular Clergy New Common Fund

ESTABLISHED IN 1803

Very Rev. Canon Egan
Very Rev. Canon Carter
Right Rev. Monsignor Canon Ward
Right Rev. Monsignor T. Ottley
Right Rev. Monsignor Canon Watson

THIS Fund helps to support the Aged and Infirm Priests of the Dioceses of Westminster, Southwark, and Portsmouth.

Owing to the great increase in the number of priests in these three dioceses, there is ever an increasing demand upon the Income of the Society, on the part of the sick and aged priests. All bequests and donations to this Fund are invested in the names of the Trustees of the Fund, in safe securities, and the interest thereof is allotted to the sick members.

The Administrators earnestly appeal to those who have the means to contribute to this Fund, and thus assist those who have devoted their lives to the spiritual needs of Christ's Flock, but who are temporarily or permanently incapacitated from performing their sacred duties. Over 500 Masses are said annually for the living and deceased benefactors of the fund.

Subscriptions and donations may be sent to the Treasurer, the Very Rev. Canon Egan, The Presbytery, High Road, Chiswick, W.

The following Form of Bequest is recommended:

"I give and bequeath to the Very Rev. Edmund F. Egan, or to the Treasurer for the time being of the Secular Clergy New Common Fund, the sum of £ , free of legacy duty, to be raised and paid by and out of my personal estate, to be applied towards carrying out the charitable designs of the fund."

The Secular Clergy Fund

Diocese of Hexham & Newcastle

CALLED

THE NORTHERN BRETHREN'S FUND

ESTABLISHED 250 YEARS

SUPERIORS :

Rev. A. MAGILL, Brooms, Leadgate, Co. Durham.
Very Rev. J. Canon STARK, St Mary's, Hexham.
Very Rev. W. Canon BROWN, Old Elvet, Durham.

Treasurer and Secretary :

Rev. W. SMITH, St Hilda's, Southwick, Sunderland.

THIS Fund has for its objects the relief and maintenance of Secular Priests belonging to the Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle, who, from sickness, age, or infirmity have become incapable of continuing their Missionary labours.

It is supported partly by the subscriptions of its Members, the Clergy, and partly by the benefactions of the charitable.

Each Member says one Mass monthly for its living and deceased Benefactors, so that upwards of 1,500 Masses are offered up each year for this intention.

Persons may become Benefactors by a donation or bequest free of legacy duty of £10 or more ; thus helping to make provision for those " who have borne the burden of the day and the heats " in their service, and at the same time availing themselves of the benefits of the Holy Sacrifice of the Altar.

In addition to the 1,500 Masses said each year, 40 Masses will be offered specially for the donor on his or her decease. Benefactions may also be made in behalf of the deceased.

Pope Leo XIII., by a Rescript dated 8th June, 1890, granted :

1. To the Members and Benefactors, for ever, a Plenary Indulgence at the hour of death, provided they invoke, at least in their heart, the Holy Name of Jesus.
2. On behalf of all deceased Members and Benefactors for ever, the favour of the " Privileged Altar " for every Mass offered up for them according to the Rules of the Fund.

The Administrators earnestly appeal to the faithful on behalf of this Charity, which preserves their devoted Clergy from want in sickness and old age, after they have spent their health in their apostolic labours.

The Yorkshire Brethren Infirm Secular Clergy Fund

President: Very Rev. J. Canon Russell, Keighley.

Treasurer: Very Rev. Provost Glover, 16, Vernon Road, Harrogate.

Secretary: Very Rev. F. G. Canon Wood, Cragwood, Rawdon, near Leeds.

THE dioceses of Leeds and Middlesbrough have one common Fund (The Yorks Brethren Fund) for the support of the Secular Clergy, who are Members of the Fund, and who through infirmity of age or sickness are incapable of performing missionary duties.

Any person may become a Benefactor of the Fund by a donation of £10, for which forty masses will be said; or by a donation of £5, for which twenty masses will be said; or by a smaller donation for which a proportionate number of masses will be said, and which will entitle the Benefactor to share in the monthly masses for ever.

Every priest who is a Member of the Fund, offers the Holy Sacrifice once in each month for all Benefactors living and dead. The number of monthly masses at present offered for all Benefactors is 200.

BIRMINGHAM SECULAR CLERGY FUND

Administrator:

Rev. J. M. Flynn, Burton-on-Trent.

Secretary:

THIS Fund has for its object the support of the Secular Clergy of the Diocese, who, on account of age or infirmity, are no longer able to continue their missionary labours. Any person may become a Benefactor by a donation of £10; or he may make another, whether living or dead, a Benefactor, by a similar donation on his behalf.

Eighty Masses are offered within three months for each Benefactor, and these may be said, at his option, either before or after his death. An Annual Mass is also offered by each member of the Association for all the Benefactors of the Fund, Living or Dead.

Shrewsbury Secular Clergy Fund

FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE INFIRM AND SUPERANNUATED CLERGY OF THE DIOCESE of SHREWSBURY

A DONATION of £10 entitles a Benefactor to 40 special Masses; a donation of £5 to 20 special Masses; said either immediately or on death of donor.

¶ About 70 Masses are offered every month for all Benefactors, living and dead.

¶ Particulars from the Secretary,

Rev. J. H. ROCHE,

FORM OF LEGACY TO THE FUND

I BEQUEATH to the Rev. Chichele Giles, of Newport, Salop, Treasurer of the Society called the "Shrewsbury Secular Clergy Fund," or to the Treasurer of the same for the time being, the sum of £ , free of legacy duty, for the benefit of that fund; and I earnestly hope that the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for the repose of my soul: but I do declare that this expression of my hope shall not be construed as a condition or trust attached to the same Legacy; and that the compliance with this my hope shall not be deemed necessary to give effect to the same Legacy.

Association of the Crusade of Prayer for the Souls in Purgatory

ESTABLISHED AT THE BRIDGETTINE HOUSE OF SYON ABBEY, CHUDLEIGH, S. DEVON, 1892, WITH THE APPROBATION OF THE BISHOP OF PLYMOUTH.

THIS Association received the Blessing of the Supreme Pontiff, Leo XIII, on July 12, 1893; it also received that of his successor, our late Holy Father, Pope Pius X. His Holiness Pope Benedict XV, gave his Blessing and approval to it on April 10, 1915, as well as his Blessing to all the Associates.

The OBJECT of the ASSOCIATION is to pray for the deceased who have a special claim on the members' prayers and suffrages, such as RELATIONS, FRIENDS, NEIGHBOURS, and PRIESTS and RELIGIOUS, the HOLY SOULS in general. A daily Mass is being said for the duration of the war, for the souls of those who have died in consequence of it.

For particulars of the ASSOCIATION, and for ENROLMENT of MEMBERS, APPLICATION must be made to the SUPERIOR, SYON ABBEY, CHUDLEIGH, SOUTH DEVON, ENGLAND.

In connection with the CRUSADE is published "THE POOR SOULS' FRIEND AND ST JOSEPH'S MONITOR," a monthly Magazine, originally and still chiefly devoted to plead the cause of the FAITHFUL DEPARTED. In addition to the articles on the Faithful Departed, it comprises a wide and varied field of literature contributed by able Catholic writers.

Many Catholic Devotions are explained and recommended to the faithful by special papers and Magazines; countless publications appear daily in every imaginable form and for every conceivable purpose; each industry possesses a special organ; medical science has its own journal to plead the alleviation of human suffering. THE CHURCH SUFFERING has for its advocate "THE POOR SOULS' FRIEND."

Subscription 1s. 6d. yearly, payable in advance. Single copies 1½d. Specimen copies free. The Magazine can be obtained from "THE MANAGER," OFFICE of the "P.S.F.," CHUDLEIGH, SOUTH DEVON, or from MESSRS. WASHBOURNE LTD., PATERNOSTER ROW, LONDON, E.C.; or from MESSRS. BURNS & OATES, 28, ORCHARD STREET, LONDON.

A limited space is allotted for advertisements. The scale of charges can be obtained from "THE MANAGER," OFFICE OF "THE P.S.F."

Westminster Diocesan Education Fund

THE Fund was established by His Eminence CARDINAL MANNING in June, 1866, to promote the religious and secular education of the Catholic Poor Children in the Diocese of Westminster. The Fund is applicable to:

1. The erection and the maintenance of Diocesan Certified Reformatory, Industrial, and Poor-Law Schools.
2. To providing religious Inspection for all the Schools in The Diocese.
3. To protecting the Faith of Catholic Children who are chargeable to the Poor Rates, or who come under the operation of the Reformatory and Industrial Schools Acts.

Certified for the reception of Poor-Law Children.—St. Mary's Orphanage, North Hyde; St. Charles's School, Brentwood; St. Mary's Orphanage, Walthamstow. Industrial School.—St. Nicholas's, Manor Park. Reformatory.—St. John's, Walthamstow.

The schools included in the above list, which are immediately dependent on the Archbishop, require continual assistance from the Diocesan Education Fund to meet the expenses of repairs, painting, renewal of furniture and bedding, extension and improvement of premises, etc., which cannot be provided out of the ordinary income of the schools.

The children in the Home Office Schools (i.e., Industrial and Reformatory) have a greater claim on our pity than mere poverty, for they have all suffered from parental neglect and bad company, and without help would certainly fall into the criminal classes. The training given in these schools is not only most necessary for them, but, in nine cases out of ten, has proved thoroughly successful.

Bankers: London County and Westminster Bank, Victoria Street, London, S.W.

Auditors: Messrs. Lescher, Stephens and Co., 6, Clements Lane, E.C.

Secretary and Treasurer: T. W. Hunter, Esq., M.A., Archbishop's House, Westminster, S.W., by whom the smallest contributions will be gratefully received and acknowledged.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give to the Westminster Diocesan Education Fund the sum of £ free of legacy duty, to be applied under the direction, and to promote the objects, of the said Society, as if the same formed part of the funds arising from voluntary subscriptions, with liberty to apply such legacy as in aid of the said voluntary subscriptions; and I declare that the receipt of the Secretary of the said Society for the time being shall be a good discharge for the said legacy.

J.M.J.

St Joseph's African Missionary Society, Cork

Founded under the Special Blessing of the Sovereign Pontiff and the Lord Bishop of Cork

THE SOCIETY OF AFRICAN MISSIONS comprises Priests, Brothers and Nuns. It was established at the earnest request and with the special benediction of the late Pope Pius IX of happy memory, and has for its end the education of missionaries for the "Dark Continent" of Africa.

The missionaries of this Society have laboured with much fruit for over sixty years in many parts of Africa. The most abandoned and self-sacrificing missions get their preference, such, for instance, as the benighted idolators of Dahomey, Ashantee, Yoruba, Nigeria, the Delta regions, and Liberia.

The essential qualifications for aspirants to the Apostolate are: (1) Clerical reference. (2) Sound constitution, free from hereditary disease. (3) Ability to acquire the necessary studies. (4) Being within the standard age, which is from 14 to 21 years.

The venerable Clergy and religious teachers of the Country are earnestly invited to extend their valuable co-operation, by recommending pious youths and maidens whom they deem worthy for such an inestimable vocation.

Every Christian who takes to heart the honour of God and the Salvation of immortal souls, will recognize the necessity of supporting such a meritorious work as evangelizing their outcast brethren in Africa. Those who cannot consecrate their lives to this end may partake of the labours and merits of the missioners by supplying material assistance towards the education of poor but deserving students and nuns for this Society. Our Holy Father Leo XIII has bestowed his Apostolic Benediction upon the Colleges and upon all those who support it.

A sum of £500 is sufficient to educate perpetually a young missionary, and those who contribute towards the foundation of such a Burse will be remembered in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass twice every week in perpetuity. All contributions, however small, are gratefully received, as the expenses are great.

Aspirants to the Priesthood or Brotherhood of the Society are asked to communicate with the VERY REV. FR. PROVINCIAL, St Joseph's Seminary, Blackrock Road, Cork, who will gladly give every facility to worthy candidates.

ST VINCENT'S SCHOOL
FOR BLIND AND DEAF CHILDREN
TOLLCROSS, GLASGOW

Under the care of the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul

THIS School is sanctioned by Government for the Elementary and Industrial Training of Blind and Deaf Children in terms of the Education of Blind and Deaf Children (Scotland) Act, 1890. By this same Act the School Boards are obliged to provide for the Education of such Children in a School or Institution in accordance with their religious persuasion.

The Blind Children are taught by the Braille method, and the Deaf Children by the Oral System.

Children, Male and Female, are admitted between the ages of five and sixteen years. For the Deaf Children who have been long enough in School to learn a trade, the Sisters provide positions suitable to each when sixteen years of age.

For the Blind, the Sisters have a workshop at No. 9 Graham Square, Glasgow, where the Blind Boys are transferred at sixteen years of age, to be apprenticed to the Basket-making.

For the Female Blind, the Sisters have a workshop at St Vincent's, Tollcross, where the Girls, when they leave School, can be apprenticed to the Mattress-making.

Orders for all kinds of Baskets and Hampers, etc., or repairs of same will be gratefully received and attended to; also for Bedding of any description.

This is the only Catholic Institution for Blind or Deaf Children in Scotland.

Application for admission to be made to SISTER ALOYSIUS RAINFORD, Superioress.

Owing to the numbers seeking admission, we have been obliged to start the completion of the building of the west wing of Institution, which was left unfinished for want of funds. Donations for same will be gratefully received and acknowledged.

SUPERB GRAND & UPRIGHT PIANOFORTES

THE PIANOS WHICH INSPIRE:

For Splendour of Tone and Perfectly Responsive Touch are Unrivalled.

THOSE who purchase the Marshall and Rose Pianoforte can always be confident that their instrument will win the highest measure of praise on account of its superlatively sympathetic qualities. The Marshall and Rose Pianoforte in the making has been treated with the same care and tenderness as a rare violin; it is the supreme outcome of years of experience and steady striving after an ideal; every part of it has literally been trained towards perfection, and the result is an instrument which is almost human in its responsiveness. The artist who avails himself of this wonderful instrument as a means of self-expression will find that his message never fails in its appeal when given to an audience in such an exceptional manner. Real connoisseurs of Music are convinced that the magic and beauty of the immortal works of the great Composers cannot be more perfectly realized than when interpreted on the Piano of Perfection—the instrument which bears the name of

MARSHALL & ROSE.

Kindly call or write for Illustrated Catalogue

The Marshall and Rose Grand and Upright Pianofortes can also be obtained containing THE WORLD-FAMED ANGELUS PIANO-PLAYER, which gives you a Piano possessing every musical quality and the ability to play it.

Manual of Modern Scholastic Philosophy

By His Eminence CARDINAL MERCIER

AND

Professors of the Higher Institute of Philosophy, Louvain.

Authorized Translation and Eighth Edition by T. L. Parker, M.A., and S. A. Parker, O.S.B., M.A.

With a Preface by P. Coffey, Ph.D. (Louvain), Professor of Philosophy at Maynooth College.

In addition to the five physiological plates, there is a beautiful portrait of His Eminence reproduced in photogravure from an original by Pardon, Brussels, together with a facsimile of his letter introducing the work to the English-speaking public.

Beautifully printed ; 2 volumes, 8vo, 10/6 net each.

This work has a twofold interest. The one arises from the tragic fate that has befallen the University of Louvain. The halls where courses of Philosophy were delivered are now the wards of a Red Cross Hospital. The Professors of the Institute of Philosophy are scattered, and some are in exile. The illustrious founder, the author of most of these pages, is the Prelate who now consoles his stricken people, while his name is held in benediction in every corner of Christendom. The other interest attaches to the subject-matter of the work on its own intrinsic merits. It contains a clear, simple, and methodical exposition of the principles and problems of every department of philosophy ; and its appeal is not to any particular class, but is broadly human and universal.

England and the Catholic Church under Queen Elizabeth

By Professor A. O. MEYER.

Authorized Translation by the Rev. J. R. McKee, M.A., of the London Oratory. 8vo, 12/- net.

"It is a most unusual thing for a book of ecclesiastical history written by a Protestant to receive the imprimatur of the Roman Catholic Church. The translator admits that Dr. Meyer's work contains views which a Catholic historian would reject, and passes over considerations which he would emphasize. These differences, however, are outweighed by the fact that Professor Meyer takes the same view of the Reformation which English Roman Catholic historians have taken, from Dodd to the present day. The translator has done his work most skilfully, and as Dr. Meyer revised and improved it, the English edition is better than the original."—Expository Times.

PRESENT FOR FIRST & FREQUENT COMMUNICANTS

"The Love of Jesus"

Or Visits to the Blessed Sacraments for every Day of the Month

By The Right REV. MONSIGNOR GILBERT

FORTY-SIX THOUSAND COPIES of this work have been published in England, and Ten Editions in the United States. It has been translated into French, German, Italian, and Portuguese. When first published it was received with a chorus of approval and welcome by the Press, both Catholic and Protestant. The following are extracts from reviews : " It is an eloquent book. It speaks to the soul and discovers an acquaintance with man's heart, its sorrows and its joys, hopes and fears, which can only have been gained by one who has sounded the depths of his own nature by the aid of the Divine Spirit." " It is full of pious thoughts and holy aspirations with meditative reflections of great beauty. . . . A very commendable volume." " A most charming book. We have seen many books of Visits, but never one which has pleased us so much. When this book is known, it is sure to be appreciated and loved." Time and the public have abundantly proved the truth of these extracts.

Price 1s. 6d. To be obtained from all Catholic Booksellers.

Meditations Without Method

BY THE REV. W. D. STRAPPINI, S.J.

Crown 8vo, cloth gilt. Price 4s. net

"As the title suggests, the book is one to be read slowly, re-read and always prayed. What we have liked in it is its eminently wholesome piety, its disregard of the pious cliché, and its general humanity, which is as far from laxness, we would emphasize, as it is from conventionalism. This though is what we expected from the author of 'The Inward Gospel.'"—The Month.

"It aims at bringing out the depth of teaching contained in Christ's actions, and showing how that teaching harmonizes with our Lord's spoken words. It is a simple volume, full of sound and solid thinking, and it will be found stimulating spiritual reading."—Catholic Book Notes.

Prices: Rexine, 6s. net; Roan, 7s. net; Rutland, 8s. 6d. net; Finest Morocco, limp, gilt, 10s. 6d. net. Postage 3d.

PRINTED in red and black upon Oxford India paper. New 1916 edition revised and with an introduction by Dr. Adrian Fortescue. In conformity with all the recent reforms. ¶ Messrs. Burns and Oates' Missal stands alone in its class for those who wish to follow the Mass in the spirit and the words of the Church. It is accurate, it is complete, it is excellently arranged: it is admirably printed with all its rubrics in the traditional red, and its size and shape are of distinguished convenience, despite its 950 pages. Dr. Fortescue's association with the book on the one hand, and on the other an almost immeasurable concern of the publishers, expressed, after fifty experiments, in the choice of size, type, paper and binding, have made of this Missal an important and very practical contribution to the liturgical revival among layfolk in this country.
